² This charge is $23.99 more than what was previously recorded because we inadvertently left off a charge for a home renovation text that Jay Ward acquired on October 24, 2003 to develop support for the concept of ZAI being disturbed during renovation.
